A Brilliant Society Event in Staunton.

YEAKLEY-RANSON WED'ING

Wiss Helena A. Favill and Mr. J. M Richardson Are Married at Freder-lcksburg-Mr. Wright Weds Miss Chewning.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., June 17.—A marriage which has been looked forward to with much interest among the Staunton fashionables took place at 0 o'clock tonight in the tastefully decorated Emmanuel Episcopal Church, when Miss Eleanor Straith Ranson, daughter of Captain Thomas D. Ranson, became the bride of Dr. William Holmes Yeakley, of Dawls, W. Va.

The church had been beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers, and was lighted by thousands of small candles. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party entered the church and proceeded slowly up the left aisle to the chancel, where they were met by the groom and his best man, Mr. Joseph Denney, of Staunton, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. R. C. Jett, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church.

The bride were a pretty white chiffon enwold, the beststart the bride's father.

Dr. and Mrs. Yeakley left on the night train for an extended wedding tour, after which they will make their home in Davis, W. Va., at which place Dr. Yeakley is a prominent and practicing physi-clan.

SERVE AS PASTOR UNTIL THE FALL

Rev. C. J. Jones to Preach for Newport News Christian Church.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) C. J. Jones, one of the ablest and best known pastors in the Christian denomination, in this country, has accepted, until the fail, the pastorate of the Newport News Christian Church, which will soon be vacated by Rev. W. C. Wicker, who has accepted the chair of natural science and philosophy at Elon College, N. C. Dr. Jones established the Christian Memorial Temple in Norfolk, and for about ten years was pastor of it. He recently resigned the pastorate of the church at New Bedford, Mass., to accept the chair of theology at the Palmer University, Muncle, Ind. He will not enter upon his new duties at Muncle until probably November 1st, and will preach here in the meantime.
